

Kathy Boelter

Kathy Boelter runs Arctic Willow Consulting, a CEO and Executive Consultancy specializing in re-orgs/restructuring, scaling, strategy and transitions. She is a trusted advisor to CEOs as they look to strategically grow their organizations, optimize their teams and help themselves professionally.

Kathy has also been a board leader sitting on boards in the healthcare, technology, chamber of commerce and education sectors. She is well versed in governance and operating models and enjoys working with CEOs and management to help bring necessary and strategic change.

Prior to Arctic Willow, Kathy founded and ran Arrow Solutions Group, a technology staffing and recruiting company. She had a successful exit in 2021.

Kathy lives with her family in the Denver, CO market and is an avid outdoor recreationalist. She has been a WPO member of Chapter 1 since 2020.